

Young Learners
(Children and Teenagers)
Special Interest Group

2008 YL SIG fielded discussions

Young children & EFL

When? 30 June - 5 July 2008 - Where? In front of your monitor

Leonora Fröhlich- Ward

Leonora Fröhlich-Ward, born to an Irish-Italian family in England, studied French at Exeter and in France. After moving to Munich she taught English at secondary and primary schools and then started teaching to pre-schoolers in kindergarten. Since the 1980's she has concentrated on teaching English to Young Learners aged 5 – 10. During this time she documented her experience as co-author of courses for an Early Start - English for Mopsy and Me and Kooky, as well as Playtime for Bavarian TV.

Other activities included training primary school teachers, giving workshops all over Germany and in other European countries and writing articles in this field.

This discussion will be brought to you with the support of

visit YL SIG at www.ylsig.com

Join YL SIG on-line here or download a membership form here.